TITLE IV
“ECCLESIASTICAL DISCIPLINE”

Overview of New Disciplinary Structures and Proceedings

Effective July 1, 2011
Diocese of Rochester Training
January, 2013
By virtue of our Baptismal Covenant, all members of this Church are called to holiness of life and accountability to one another.

The Church and each Diocese shall support their members in their life in Christ and seek to resolve conflicts by promoting healing, repentance, forgiveness, restitution, justice, amendment of life and reconciliation among all involved or affected.

This Title of accountability and ecclesiastical discipline applies to Members of the Clergy, who have by their vows at ordination accepted additional responsibilities and accountabilities for doctrine, discipline, worship and obedience.
Goals of Revised Title IV

- Less Adversarial
- Reflect theology
- Flexibility of outcomes to promote healing
- Allow early story telling
- Options for constructive resolutions
- More efficient
- Promote pastoral care for all
Seek to resolve conflicts by promoting:

- healing
- repentance
- forgiveness
- restitution
- justice
- amendment of life
- reconciliation
- (IV.1)
Title IV.3 and 4

- Phrased as more detailed standards of conduct
- Includes accountability provisions, e.g., failing to cooperate in any Title IV investigation
- Must be material and substantial or of clear and weighty importance to the ministry of the Church
- Clergy required to report Offense except those within Rite of Reconciliation of a Penitent
Title IV.3: Of Accountability

Sec. 1. A Member of the Clergy shall be subject to proceedings under this Title for:

- (a) knowingly violating or attempting to violate, directly or through the acts of another person, the Constitution or Canons of the Church or of any Diocese;
- (b) failing without good cause to cooperate with any investigation or proceeding conducted under authority of this Title; or
- (c) intentionally and maliciously bringing a false accusation or knowingly providing false testimony or false evidence in any investigation or proceeding under this Title.

Sec. 2. A Member of the Clergy shall be accountable for any breach of the Standards of Conduct set forth in Title IV.4.

Sec. 3. In order for any conduct or condition to be the subject of the provisions of this Title, the Offense complained of must violate applicable provisions of Title IV.3 or IV.4 and must be material and substantial or of clear and weighty importance to the ministry of the Church.
Title 4: Of Standards of Conduct

Sec. 1. In exercising his or her ministry, a Member of the Clergy shall:

(a) respect and preserve confidences of others except that pastoral, legal or moral obligations of ministry may require disclosure of those confidences other than Privileged Communications;

(b) conform to the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer;

(c) abide by the promises and vows made when ordained;

(d) abide by the requirements of any applicable Accord or Order, or any applicable Pastoral Direction, restriction on ministry, or placement on Administrative Leave issued under Title IV. 7;
(e) safeguard the property and funds of the Church and Community;

(f) report to the Intake Officer all matters which may constitute an Offense as defined in Canon IV.2 meeting the standards of Canon IV.3.3, except for matters disclosed to the Member of Clergy as confessor within the Rite of Reconciliation of a Penitent;

(g) exercise his or her ministry in accordance with applicable provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Church and of the Diocese, ecclesiastical licensure or commission and Community rule or bylaws;

(h) refrain from:
   (1) any act of Sexual Misconduct;
   (2) holding and teaching publicly or privately, and advisedly, any Doctrine contrary to that held by the Church;
